

Positionality

Media Involvement

Christchurch residents fuming over shipping container site

By Tina Grumball

News > National

f 50 t 6 w

Friday, 7 October 2022

Exit ramps provided for resident UC ducklings after student petition

By Tina Grumball

Canterbury > Christchurch

f 308 t 0 w

The second duckling ramp. Photo: Tina Grumball

Six sentenced over 'cowardly' pack attack

By Tina Grumball

News > Dunedin > Crime

f 19.4K t 26 w

Monday, 14 March 2022

Student-quarter peeping burglar named

By Tina Grumball

News > Dunedin > Crime

f 6280 t 7 w

The bandana burglar who terrorised students for more than two years can finally be unmasked. PIJF court reporter Tina Grumball charts his appeal as those affected call for improvements in student-flat security.

His name is Nicholas Scott Kerr (33) and he is the masked bandit who burgled 12 Dunedin student flats.

Judges declined to suppress Kerr's appeal, making it possible to now reveal his identity.

In 2018, his "missions" began when he burgled a student flat on Queen St occupied by 10 females and cut a hole in one of their bedroom curtains.

Police of Scotland identify

Monday, 14 November 2022

'Pinkies' class of '57 mark 65 years since nursing training

By Tina Grumball

Canterbury > Christchurch

f 120

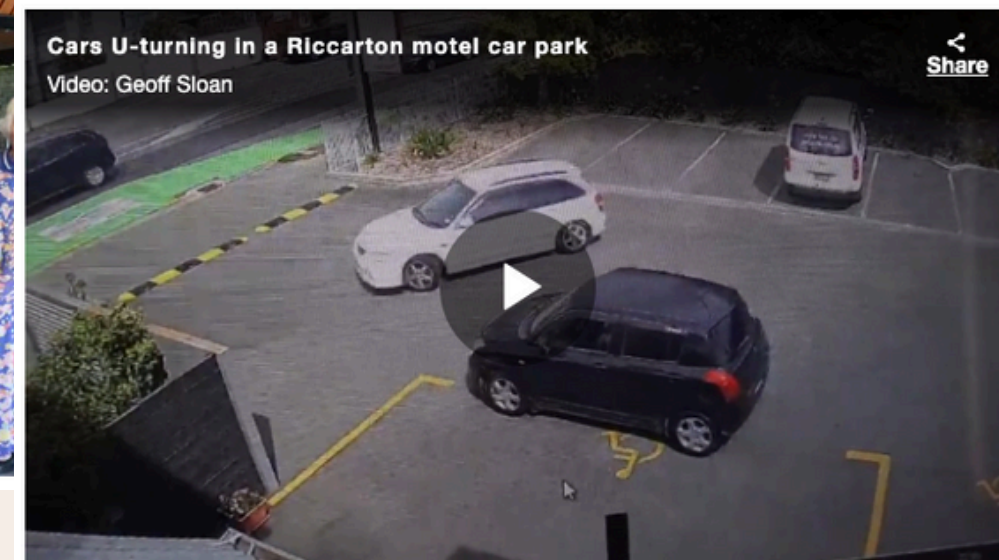

6000 U-turns and still counting

By Tina Grumball

Canterbury > Christchurch

f 9215 t 2 w

It is called 306 Motel Apartments. But it could easily be renamed 360 Motel Apartments.

Monday, 5 December 2022

'Really sorry but my cat is a thief': Embarrassed owner dubs in moggie

By Tina Grumball

Canterbury > Christchurch

f 7430 t 4 w

